CEYISE  STUDIOS

Biography

At the helm of Ceyise Studios, Dr. Stacey Denise's flair for vibrant color powered transformation from pediatric surgeon to leading neuroaesthetic designer and trailblazing contemporary new media expressionist. Pigments and pixels provide this artist an emotional voice stymied by alexithymia in youth, revealing a colorful destiny once deferred.

Today, her photographic impressions morph into vivid new media expressionism as the studio's resident Color Whisperer, channeling AI's potential with digital media to craft art and spaces resonating with unspoken stories.

Art Philosophy

Dr. Stacey Denise Moore weaves bold chromatic expressiveness into her contemporary digital artwork to finally articulate emotions once rendered inarticulate by alexithymia. This condition obscured her childhood capacity to convey inner feelings.

By embracing the malleable pixel's potential, she spotlights our common humanity's essence through empathic portraits, fantastical dreamscapes, and impassioned nature studies. Dr. Stacey believes pristine light and saturated colors hold unique power to transcend separation and unite us through beauty's universal language.
